NULLARBOR LINKS WINS GOLD:

Nullarbor Links World's longest Golf Course Australia has won Gold at the Western Australia Tourism council awards held at the Burswood Casino Ballroom Saturday 20th November 2010.

Out of 5 finalist Nullarbor Links was judged the “Best New Tourism Development”.

Alf Caputo, course manager believes Nullarbor Links is completely unique. His acceptance speech contained the following quote.

“Nullarbor Links takes you on a drive to Australia’s famous oyster beds at Ceduna, the wheat & sheep farming districts at Penong and Nundroo. You venture past the wonderful whales and beautiful coastline at Nullarbor, to arrive at the beaches at Eucla and the remains of Skylab at Balladonia. The working sheep station at Fraser Range and the indigenous art and dance of Ngadjju people in Norseman, features strongly in National and International appeal. Nickel mining and land sailing at Kambalda and then finally arriving at Australia’s gold capital Kalgoorlie.

This is the real Australia. But more important ladies & gentleman Nullarbor Links belongs to Western & South Australia. You can’t play Nullarbor links on the Gold Coast, you can’t play it at the Sydney Opera House. Certainly Melbourne can’t pinch it.

In years to come Nullarbor links will take its place as a prominent Australian international tourism icon.
